

Fast Game Promised Tonight When Local Y. M. Team Meets Gary Five

YANKEE HURLING STAFF NOT BEST AS IS REPORTED

Sport Writers of New York Have Been Handing "Wild Bill" Donovan Line of Bunk About His Pitching Crew.

By Frank G. Menke.
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Ever since "Wild Bill" Donovan was sentenced to serve one term as manager of the unmanageable Yankees, the sport writing persons herabouts, have been busting into poem and prose in an effort to tell him that things aren't as bad as they might be. Probably they are afraid if "Wild Bill" learns the awful truth too soon he may flit away from here and never, never come back. And then who would manage the Yankees? There aren't very many people, you know, who are as brave as "Wild Bill," nor as willing to do what Stephan Brodie did.

The prize for optimism (or—) goes to one pencil pusher in this wicked city, who recently penned these here words for "Wild Bill" to gaze upon:

"The Yankee pitching staff is one of the strongest, if not the strongest, in the country."

Maybe that fellow meant pitching quiffs, hay or food. Surely he couldn't have meant at pitching baseballs for Yankee pitching staff that "Wild Bill" will have available for regular duty next spring is—well, take a look at what these Yankee hold-overs did in 1914:

Player	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Fisher	28	11	12	.478
Warhop	39	9	12	.429
Kling	34	6	14	.300
McHale	31	7	16	.304
Brown	33	7	9	.437
Cole	31	9	9	.500

Totals 49 72 .465

Isn't it a powerful looking outfit? The writer went on to tell "Wild Bill" that Ray Caldwell also could be counted among those present next spring, but the writer evidently overlooked—or ignored—the fact that the aforesaid Mista Caldwell is hooked by a Federal league contract—very well hooked, indeed.

But even if Caldwell should escape the Feds and get back his old job of pitching for the Yankees it wouldn't make the Yankee pitching staff look better than mediocre. Caldwell, in 1914, won 17 out of 25 games. Including his record with the other Yankee pitchers, it will be seen that the aforesaid Mista Caldwell is hooked by a Federal league contract—very well hooked, indeed.

Doesn't look very hopeful for Donovan does it? "Wild Bill" may have been a bit wilder earlier in his life, but it's a fairly safe bet when he'll be a much wilder "Wild Bill" about a week after he has a chance to see what his "strongest pitching staff" can do—or, rather can't do.

Jim Bluejacket, the Indian twirler of the Brooklyn Federals, is the only pitcher in baseball history who ever got credit for a victory without pitching a ball.

It happened late last summer when the Brookfeds were playing the Pittsburgh Rebels. Bluejacket was ordered to the mound as a relief twirler in the ninth inning when his own club was behind. The Rebels had two out when Bluejacket took up his duties. Steve Yoke, the Pittsburgh second baseman, was on first. Bluejacket saw him taking a long lead and then heaved the ball to first. Yoke was caught, making it three out. During their session at bat the Brookfeds pounded out enough runs to win the game.

Bluejacket got credit for the victory, in keeping with the rules, as his club was behind when he went into the box.

BROWN AFFIDAVIT SAYS MEN TRADED FOR DOGS

Suit to Dissolve Alleged Baseball Trust
By Feds Produces Queer Accusations—Papers Filled With Clerks.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Among the affidavits prepared by Federal league players and managers in the suit to dissolve the National baseball commission and the organized ball clubs agreement as a trust, the most remarkable on file today was that of Mordecai Brown, manager of the St. Louis Federal league team that ball players have been traded for dogs.

The Federal league filed the affidavits with the clerk of courts.

The case has been called for hearing Jan. 20 before Federal Judge K. M. Landis.

TEAMS TO MEET TONIGHT

St. Joseph's Five Will Clash With M. A. C. Squad.

Plans have been completed for the tilt between the St. Joseph hall basketball five of Notre Dame and the M. A. C. team at the M. A. C. hall on St. Chapin st., Wednesday. The game is expected to be close, as both quintets are fast and have displayed considerable talent thus far this season.

FOWLER DEFEATS SWEENEY.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 13.—"Mink" Fowler, a local featherweight, gained an easy victory over Jimmy Sweeney of Chicago last night in eight rounds.

HALL MEETS TO SERVE AS TEST FOR NEW STARS

Fully Seventy Men Are Expected to Take Part in Contests. Several Men Are Showing Strong.

Fully 70 men will compete in the first preliminary inter-hall track meet which will be held in the University of Notre Dame gymnasium Jan. 28. This meet will also serve as a means for trying out the many recruits, who are candidates for the varsity track squad.

Twenty-four men, for the most part veterans, or men with considerable experience, are certain of competing in the Red-Blue meet, which will be held two days later. It is also probable that Coach Rockne will pick the men who show to best advantage in the inter-hall events to compete in the Red-Blue contest.

Among the men eligible for the varsity team who are showing up well in the various events to date are: Bergman, Hardy and Von Thron in the dashes, Henihan and Welsh in the quarter mile, Voelker and McDonough in the half, Waage and Hugh O'Donnell in the mile, Bartholomew, Conboy and Edward in the two mile, Kirkland and Dugan in the hurdles, Mills, J. Miller and Yeager in the pole vault and Captain Eichenlaub, Bachman and Keefe in the shot put.

The Freshmen, who are showing up unusually well, but who will be ineligible for the college meets, are Art Bergman, Ryan, Sears and Fritch in the dashes, Ryan in the quarter and half, Fritch and Steerlet in the hurdles, Sears in the high jump and pole vault, Tom King and Edgren in the pole vault and Freund in the broad jump.

The schedule for the half mile relay races between six men teams of the various halls was made public yesterday. The races will be dual affairs and will be before the home varsity basketball games and between the halves.

The schedule announced is as follows:

Jan. 13—Corby vs. Brownson, Walsh vs. Sorin.
Jan. 16—St. Joe vs. Day Students, Corby vs. Walsh.
Jan. 22—Sorin vs. St. Joe, Day Students vs. Brownson.
Jan. 27—Corby vs. Day Students, Brownson vs. St. Joe.
Jan. 30—Day Students vs. Walsh, Sorin vs. Corby.
Feb. 6—Brownson vs. Sorin, Walsh vs. St. Joe.
Feb. 10—Corby vs. St. Joe, Sorin vs. Day Students.
Feb. 13—Brownson vs. Walsh.

All students of the various halls are eligible for the relay teams with the exception of those on the training table. A prize will be awarded to the team which has won the majority of the dual events at the close of the basketball season.

SHUGRUE THE FAVORITE

Fans Think He Will Be Able to Dispose of Cross.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Joe Shugrue rules the favorite over Leach Cross in their 10-round bout scheduled for tomorrow night at Madison Square garden. The terrific punch the east silder carries, however, has brought out some Cross support and a few private wagers are reported. It is generally conceded that Cross can beat any lightweight he can hit and the Shugrue supporters are among the first to admit this, but hold to the belief that Joe can keep out of the way of Leach's artillery. A good house is looked for, as Cross always draws a big east side crowd and a delegation of 2,000 or more probably will come over from Jersey to see Shugrue perform.

GARY FIVE PLAYS THE Y. M. C. A. TEAM TONIGHT

Northern City Always Has a Fast Bunch and One of the Liveliest Tilt of Year is Expected.

GARY'S Y. M. C. A. team comes to South Bend tonight and will meet the local association team on the Y. M. floor starting at 8:15 o'clock in what promises to be one of the liveliest games staged on the local floor this season.

In the previous tilts with the locals the Gary five has showed that they are men of ability and know what to do with the ball once they get their hands on it. The team this year is said to rank with those of past seasons and the word from Gary is that the locals will be kept on the move.

Vanden Bosch and C. Witt are slated to start at forward with Eger at center and Grant and Bacon holding down the jobs at guard. This combination is about the strongest that ever represented the local association and the visitors will have to travel tonight if they are returned winners.

Lively Tilt Expected When They Meet Northwestern.

Notre Dame and Northwestern college last at the local gymnasium this afternoon in what promised to be one of the fastest basketball games of the season.

Coach Harper put his men through hard workouts Monday and yesterday in order to have them in the best possible condition for the game today.

The game to start promptly at 3:45, according to announcement of Coach Harper yesterday. The basketball ball mentor has not as yet announced the line-up which will start the game. It is expected, however, that the coach will make some substitutions during the game. Daley, Kirkland, Grady and Cassidy, all new men, are showing up especially well and are giving the veterans a hard fight for position.

The first of the inter-hall relays will be held in connection with this afternoon's game. Corby and Brownson hall relay teams will clash in the intermission and then the Walsh and Sorin teams will run against each other.
